

KISOBOKA'S LATEST NEWSLETTER

Our team supported the community in Nakalinzi village to start their very first School Community Bank(SCOBA). Nakalinzi is among the new SCOBAs recently created

20 New SCOBAs are being created by Kisoboka

We are currently creating 20 new SCOBA groups in rural Uganda which will see 600 more people get financially included & empowered to thrive, thanks to the generous support of The Queen's Commonwealth Trust. We are expanding Financial inclusion and Economic Empowerment to the underserved in Africa. Read more about this - initiative here in our recent blog, link - Kisoboka is creating 20 new SCOBAs

Lwengyenyi SCOBA group buys land for group businesses

This Kisoboka group in Lwengyenyi recently used part of their group savings to purchase a piece of land in their community where they will establish group businesses to prosper all the members. We are inspired seeing these groups work together to solve poverty.

Our Digital Financial Inclusion initiative to scale

We recently provided mobile phones & digitalized the SCOBA group he leads in

Mayira & 33 other communities to improve access to digital financial services. Our goal is to get 1000 SCOBAs in rural Africa onboarded by 2025 & enjoying the full benefits of Digital financial inclusion. We appreciate Roddenberry foundation for supporting the pilot project which has given us confidence to scale this project

Saving in progress in one of the SCOBA groups at Kibimba Village. This community now has 8 SCOBAs comprising of 240+ members. Through these rural based groups, Kisoboka Africa beneficiaries in 51 SCOBAs have saved up $ 73,000 to date. Its so amazing seeing the people we serve build their ability to save and change their lives for the better.

Impact Stories

She is a resident of one of the communities we serve and runs a small shop as her main source of income. With the creation of SCOBA in the nearby school, she now has the platform to save, borrow & learn business skills to grow her business. We are committed to creating sustainable pathways to prosperity for her and many others. Learn more about us here www.kisobokaafrica.org

She makes mats using locally produced fibers and sells them to her community members for income. She then saves with the Kisoboka SCOBA group in Makondo

Village and sometimes gets small loans to finance her small business ventures. We are happy to see her craft her way to prosperity.
